

CSMUN 4.0: 2nd July - 3rd July, 2026

OFFICIAL CONFERENCE POLICIES

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS AND DECORUM

1.01 Statement of Purpose

The secretariat of CSMUN 4.0 expects all participants to maintain the highest standard of integrity, diplomacy and mutual respect and understanding. This document constitutes a binding agreement upon registration.

1.02 Code of Conduct

- Delegates must exhibit courtesy in all interactions with fellow delegates, executive board members, secretariat staff and chaperones.
- Defamation and standard usage of profanity inside or outside committee rooms is prohibited.
- Disruptive behaviour that impedes the flow of debates, violates instructions of the secretariat or executive board or damages venue property is strictly forbidden.

II. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND TECHNOLOGY

2.01 Internet Restriction:

The usage of the internet and personal hotspot during committee sessions is strictly prohibited.

2.02 Permitted Device Use:

The delegate may however use their devices exclusively for reading out pre-prepared research, opening statements and digital resource material.

2.03 SIM Card Restrictions:

Delegates are prohibited from bringing any device equipped with an active SIM card. Mobile phones, tablets, and other electronic devices may only be brought to the venue if all SIM cards have been removed prior to arrival.

2.04 Enforcement and Penalties:

Secretariat members and committee chairs reserve the right to audit a delegate's screen at any time. Any active internet connection during committee time will result in a second-offence penalty.

III. PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE STRUCTURE

3.01 First Offence:

The committee chair or secretariat member will issue a formal warning.

3.02 Second Offence:

The delegate will immediately be removed from the active committee session for the rest of the day. The delegate becomes ineligible for awards.

3.03 Third Offence:

The delegate will be expelled from the conference with no refund and is barred from attending all future committee sessions.
